NOTICE OF ALLOWANCE

This is a Notice of Allowance in response to Amendment filed 6/13/2006.

Claims 1-22 were examined in the prior Office Action.

Priority

Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority based on an application filed in the EUROPEAN PATENT OFFICE (EPO) on 10/30/2002. It is noted, however, that applicant has not filed a certified copy of the 02425660.4 application as required by 35 U.S.C. 119(b).

Objection of Claims 1-14 and 18-22 is hereby withdrawn in view of the Amendment to the claims as required.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Paul F. Rusyn on June 30, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

The TILTLE has been amended as follows:

Art Unit: 2138

“Method and system for compressing ~~high-repetitivity~~ repetitive data, in particular data used in memory device testing”.

The SPECIFICATION has been amended as follows:

Paragraph 2 has been amended as follows:

[2] The present invention relates to a method for compressing ~~high-repetitivity~~ repetitive data. In particular, the present invention finds advantageous, but non-exclusive, application in the compression of data used in memory device testing, to which the ensuing treatment will make explicit reference without, however, this implying any loss in generality.

Paragraph 14 has been amended as follows:

[14] According to one aspect of the present invention, a method is provided for compressing ~~high-repetitivity~~ repetitive data, as defined in Claim 1.

The CLAIMS have been amended as follows:

CLAIM 1, first paragraph lines, 1 and 2, has been amended as follows:

A method for compressing ~~high-repetitivity~~ repetitive data, in particular data used in memory device testing, comprising the steps of:

CLAIM 16, line 1, the term “claim 1” was changed to –claim 15--.

CLAIM 17, line 1, the term “claim 1” was changed to –claim 15--.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-22 are allowed.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior arts of record taken alone or in combination fail to teach, anticipate, suggest or render obvious the claimed invention of method for compressing high repetitive data recited in the independent claim 1, as currently amended, including among other limitations, a word with a format for compressible data having a first set of bits that indicates the total number of subsequent words, which, together with the word, encode the sequence of repetitive data.

Independent claim 15, as currently amended, similarly recites a method for compressing high repetitive data, including among other limitations, a compressible data word, having a first group of bits indicating a total number of subsequent words that define a repetitive sequence within the data and which together with the word encode that sequence of repetitive data.

Independent claim 18, as currently amended, recites an electronic system, including among other limitations, a compressible data word, having a first group of bits indicating a total number of subsequent words that define a repetitive sequence within the data and which together with the word encode that sequence of repetitive data.

Claims 2-14, 16, 17, 19-22 are directly or indirectly depended upon independent claims 1, 15 and 18 and therefore are also allowable.

Consequently, claims 1-22 are allowed over the prior arts of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
